

Laptop and Equipment Policy

Company laptops are provided for approved work and remain company property.

Keep the device locked when unattended and install required security updates.

Do not lend equipment or disable required security software.

Report loss, theft, or damage to IT promptly. Return all equipment when employment ends or when IT requests a replacement.